

GTFF Officer Informational Worksheet

My name is _____ Joe Henry _____.

My officer position is (check one):

- President
- Vice President for Organizing
- Vice President for Grievances
- Vice President for Political Education
- Vice President for External Relations
- Vice President for Operations
- Vice President for Member Communications
- Treasurer

In this role, my responsibilities include chairing weekly e-board meetings and the GMM, and attending the AFT-OR convention as raking delegate. It is my responsibility to be the voice of the GTFF and represent the union publicly.

My officer position for next year is currently open for nominations. You should consider running in the election! If you'd like to talk to me about what holding this positions might be like, you can email me at:

_____ president@gtff.net _____

GTFF Officer Informational Worksheet

My name is _____ Jonathan Turbin _____.

My officer position is (check one):

- President
- Vice President for Organizing
- Vice President for Grievances
- Vice President for Political Education
- Vice President for External Relations
- Vice President for Operations
- Vice President for Member Communications
- Treasurer

In this role, my responsibilities include chairing meetings of the executive council. Filling in for the president if they are unable to fulfill their responsibilities for whatever reason. Facilitate the recruitment of new members and stewards. Help administer the e-council listserv and database. Help organize actions, demonstrations, and canvassing efforts.

My officer position for next year is currently open for nominations. You should consider running in the election! If you'd like to talk to me about what holding this positions might be like, you can email me at:

_____ organizing@gtff.net _____

GTFF Officer Informational Worksheet

My name is Shawna Meechan.

My officer position is (check one):

- President
- Vice President for Organizing
- Vice President for Grievances
- Vice President for Political Education
- Vice President for External Relations
- Vice President for Operations
- Vice President for Member Communications
- Treasurer

In this role, my responsibilities include meeting with supervisors, department heads, and other members of the University community to ensure understanding of our collective bargaining agreement. When there is a misunderstanding or misapplication of our CBA, I meet with the individuals affected to help them understand their options. I assist union members with negotiating the grievance process to ensure that any misapplication or violation of our CBA is corrected and remedies applied. I also do my best to seek out systematic violations of our CBA on campus where individuals may not feel comfortable to report themselves/they are unaware that the action is a violation of our CBA (for example, GDRS is not posted on Grad School website). I provide general leadership and support for the other members of the eboard when needed.

My officer position for next year is currently open for nominations. You should consider running in the election! If you'd like to talk to me about what holding this positions might be like, you can email me at:

grievances@gtff.net

GTFF Officer Informational Worksheet

My name is Erin Moberg.

My officer position is (check one):

- President
- Vice President for Organizing
- Vice President for Grievances
- Vice President for Political Education
- Vice President for External Relations
- Vice President for Operations
- Vice President for Member Communications
- Treasurer

In this role, my responsibilities include (1) chairing the COPE (committee on political education), which includes biweekly or monthly meetings, work on several long-term projects, on-campus outreach to stewards and members, and organizing events and activities related to political education and action for GTFs;
(2) communicating with AFT-OR's Political Action Chair to organize local and statewide campaigns and actions (ie: visits to the capital, Lobby Days, etc.);
(3) communicating regularly to stewards regarding ongoing projects and how to get involved with campus, local and state issues affecting GTFs;
(4) facilitating and organizing other related actions and sub-committees.

My officer position for next year is currently open for nominations. You should consider running in the election! If you'd like to talk to me about what holding this positions might be like, you can email me at:

political.education@gtff.net

GTFF Officer Informational Worksheet

My name is _____ Jon LaRochelle _____.

My officer position is (check one):

- President
- Vice President for Organizing
- Vice President for Grievances
- Vice President for Political Education
- Vice President for External Relations
- Vice President for Operations
- Vice President for Member Communications
- Treasurer

In this role, my responsibilities include coordinating our activities with a variety of entities beyond the GTFF, such as: other campus groups (UA, SEIU, GSA, ASUO, SLAP), labor organizations (AFT AFT-OR, AGEL), and community organizations (ESSN, Lane County Strong Voice). Currently, I organize and chair the Campus Labor Council (CLC). In a bargaining year, ER assists with the contract campaign committee, helping organize our activities away from the bargaining table.

My officer position for next year is currently open for nominations. You should consider running in the election! If you'd like to talk to me about what holding this positions might be like, you can email me at:

_____ external.relations@gtff.net _____

GTFF Officer Informational Worksheet

My name is Brianna Bertoglio.

My officer position is (check one):

- President
- Vice President for Organizing
- Vice President for Grievances
- Vice President for Political Education
- Vice President for External Relations
- Vice President for Operations
- Vice President for Member Communications
- Treasurer

In this role, my responsibilities include planning events such as GMMs, end of term parties, steward retreats, etc. Running elections. Managing our paid staff members. Serving on the GTFF Health and Welfare Trust. Researching benefits and programs to better serve members.

My officer position for next year is currently open for nominations. You should consider running in the election! If you'd like to talk to me about what holding this positions might be like, you can email me at:
operations@gtff.net

GTFF Officer Informational Worksheet

My name is Richard Wagner.

My officer position is (check one):

- President
- Vice President for Organizing
- Vice President for Grievances
- Vice President for Political Education
- Vice President for External Relations
- Vice President for Operations
- Vice President for Member Communications
- Treasurer

In this role, my responsibilities include ending emails to the membership on events, activities, and other items that are important for them to be aware of. I help keep our website up to date with important information. I'm responsible for helping manage our facebook groups and twitter account I also am editor in chief of our newsletter, the Agitator. This requires routinely reminding people of deadlines and requests for articles to print.

My officer position for next year is currently open for nominations. You should consider running in the election! If you'd like to talk to me about what holding this positions might be like, you can email me at: member.communications@gtff.net

GTFF Election Informational Worksheet

My name is _____ Shawna Meechan _____.

My position is (check one):

GTFF representative to the Graduate Student Assistance Fund Committee (this position does not sit on the executive board and there are 2 seats for GTFs on the assistance fund)

Departmental Steward (each department can have 1 steward per 10 members in their department, minimum 1)

In this role, my responsibilities include _____

Attending meetings at least once a quarter with the rest of the Committee

Reviewing and responding to appeals of the Fund's decisions brought before the Committee in a timely manner

Reporting back to the GTFF eboard any information that can legally be revealed

My position for next year is currently open for nominations. You should consider running in the election! If you'd like to talk to me about what holding this positions might be like, you can email me at:

grievances@gtff.net

GTFF Election Informational Worksheet

My name is _____.

My position is (check one):

GTFF representative to the Graduate Student Assistance Fund Committee (this position does not sit on the executive board and there are 2 seats for GTFs on the assistance fund)

Departmental Steward (each department can have 1 steward per 10 members in their department, minimum 1)

In this role, my responsibilities include _____

Attending monthly executive council meetings to stay informed and help make decisions in the GTFF.

Helping coordinate department meetings when needed in order to inform other members in my department and get their feedback on issues facing the union.

Attend steward retreats (at least one each Fall) for training, education, and fun!

Talk formally and informally with union members in my department about the GTFF.

Encourage participation in union activities from other graduate employees in my department.

Be a general resource for grads in my department about the GTFF, including helping with job-related issues faced by grads in my department.

My position for next year is currently open for nominations. You should consider running in the election! If you'd like to talk to me about what holding this positions might be like, you can email me at:

organizing@gtff.net

